COLLISION IN THIRD-AVE.-A CAR THROWN OFF THE TRACK AND THE CARRIAGE WRECKED, BUT NOBODY HURT.

two-horse carriage owned by the Meyers brothers, of the Kensington Stables, Third-ave, and Eighty-sixth-st., driven by John Mullen, of No. 218 East Ninety-fifth-st., and containing a man, a woman and a little girl, was crossing Third-ave. at East Fortieth-st. about 1 p. m. yesterday when it came into collision with a car of the Third-ave. cable line. The car was the leader in a train of two The carriage was caught between the car and a pillar of the elevated railroad and badly wrecked The car was thrown from the track. The driver and other occupants of the carriage and the horses all escaped injury.

The car was crowded with passengers, all of whom were badly shaken up, but none were seriously hurt. were badly shaken up, but none were seriously hurt. The accident caused a blockade on the Third-ave, cable line. As the accident occurred on the southbound track, all cars in that direction were stopped until the displaced car was put on the rails again. No arrests were made by the police, as it was thought that no blame attached to either the driver of the carriage or to the gripman of the car.

SUDDEN DEATH IN AN OFFICE.

James Cheetham, sixty-five years old, of No. 251 ean-st., Brooklyn, died suddenly yesterday from heart disease in an office on the first floor of No. 63 Wall-st. Cheetham was employed as a canvasser at No. 12 Barclay-st. Yesterday he went up in ser at No. 12 Barclay-st. Yesterday he went up in the elevator in the Wall-st. building, transacted some business, and then started down again. On the way down he became ill and was helped into a vacant office on the ground floor. An ambulance was telephoned for, but before it arrived he was dead. Dr. Loibee, of the Hudson Street Hospital, said that Cheetham died from heart disease.
